Cloaking	The Shrine has locking cupboards for cloaking student bags. Cloaking is usually recommended but not compulsory. Occasionally we cannot provide cloaking facilities. In this case students will need to carry their bags with them for the duration of the visit. The best option is to leave bags on buses whenever that is possible.
Accessibility	All people are welcome at the Shrine and we place a high priority on providing respectful and safe access for visitors and students with disabilities.

	The venue is ramp accessible via Birdwood Avenue with ramp access available via Education Centre and Visitors Centre. The Galleries, Sanctuary and Crypt are all accessible by lift. The lift does not extend to the Balcony. There are also wheelchair spaces in the Auditorium. T Loop (telecoil) systems support audio in the Visitor Centre, Auditorium and Galleries exhibits. By prior arrangement, light levels in the Galleries can be adjusted to support visits from students with sensory, auditory and visibility needs. The inside spaces of the Shrine can be noisy, so neurodivergent students are encouraged to bring and use headphones or earplugs if required. Staff supporting neurodivergent students are encouraged to let staff know so appropriate support can be provided.
Toilets and hand hygiene	There are male and female toilets and an all-gender accessible toilet in the Visitor Centre. Near the Auditorium in the Education Centre, there is an all-gender accessible toilet and male and female ambulant toilets. Teachers should provide supervision and manage students in this area. There is a public toilet block located in the garden area opposite the Education Centre entrance. Hand sanitiser stations are in all visitor entrance foyers.
Equipment used on site for Education programs	The program called Keepsakes from the First World War, and some specialised student workshops, involve students handling real and replica historical artefacts. There are no real or replica weapons in these collections. These objects are kept clean.
Students' psychological wellbeing	The Shrine is a Child Safe venue and is committed to supporting the safety and wellbeing of all children visiting and engaging in our programs. Staff and volunteers delivering guided programs take care to present information about war and conflict in age-appropriate and psychologically safe ways. Teachers conducting self-guided excursions should note that the Galleries of Remembrance contain some images and written descriptions of the impacts of war which may be distressing to some visitors.
People students might come into contact with	Shrine personnel (employees and volunteers), Victoria Police Protective Services Officers (PSOs), contractors, general visiting public and other school students, teachers and chaperones

Spaces students might visit	Internal: Education Centre Reception, Visitor Centre, Auditorium, Galleries of Remembrance, Education Classrooms (within the Galleries), Sanctuary, Crypt, Ambulatory and stairwells External: Shrine Forecourt, Balcony and Shrine Reserve
Places for students to eat	The Shrine does not have facilities for students to eat. It is recommended that schools take snack and lunch breaks on grassed areas of the Shrine Reserve, or in the Royal Botanic Gardens. There are no undercover spaces in these locations. When wet weather disrupts snack and lunch breaks, the Shrine will endeavour where possible to provide an indoor space where students can eat. These spaces are foyer areas and do not contain seating. Students may sit on the floor in these circumstances.

Note regarding chaperones and other accompanying adults. Every adult accompanying students is required to be in a supervisory role and must have adequate authority to manage students and student groups.

Please note that the information provided is current at August 2024. It has been provided to assist teachers in their risk management planning for excursions. If further information is required, contact the Shrine. education@shrine.org.au
